

Promote the language and culture of France

Making a donation to the Alliance Française helps promote the culture of France.

The Alliance Française in Annecy

Our role

To disseminate and teach the French language through exchange programmes in support of cultural diversity.

To introduce our region and our town through the kaleidoscope of French, French-speaking and regional culture.

To develop understanding and taste for the culture of French speakers.

Our activities

Giving French language lessons to groups of adults and students.

Organising cultural events about France and our region in the spirit of community, knowledge, communication and education.

The Alliance Française throughout the world

Found in 137 countries, in 5 continents.

Although coordinated by the Fondation Alliance Française, each alliance within the network is autonomous and financially independent.

How do your donations help?

By propagating teaching of the French language.

By promoting literacy and schooling amongst the allophone population of the Annecy and its surrounding communities.

By increasing professionalism of the Alliance's administrative team in Annecy.

By creating an educational environment suitable for teaching a language (classrooms, language labs, educational material).

By organising cultural events about France and our region in the spirit of community, knowledge, communication and education.

By promoting cultural activities and establishing partnerships to build bridges between communities (including singing, dancing, art, history, literature and fine dining).
